I'm excited to announce the final health care reform bill has been posted online. In keeping with my commitment to transparency, the full text will be available for 72 hours before the final vote on the bill.

- Click here to view the final health care bill.
- Click here to learn about how the bill will help the 28th district.