Chairman Louise Slaughter and Senator Dianne Feinstein asked Agriculture Secretary Vilsack to step up the amount of data collected by his department on the subject of antibiotics and farm animals. The department is considered supportive of limiting the overuse of these antibiotics.