

The Federal Trade Commission maintains www.OnGuardOnline.gov with information regarding internet safety for children, tips on how to secure your computer, and games to test your knowledge of internet scams and dangers.

The site also offers guidance on how to talk to kids about online safety. You can download their guide to online safety here.

Feel free to contact my Rochester office and speak to Katie LaShomb at 585-232-4850 if you have any questions or concerns about safely browsing and using the internet.